

Creative and interactive approaches to develop self advocacy

www.advocreate.com

About us

Ever wondered how to make self advocacy fun, interactive and stimulating?

Well it's never been easier.

Creative self-advocacy for community and educational groups to include people with a learning disability, carers and support staff.

At Advocreate we use drama, film and other creative ways to help to develop self-advocacy.

“I have become more assertive.”

The Advocacy Project

“We want more of it and longer!”

Elfrida Society

Drama with Advocreate

Workshops are between 2-3 hours long and take place at a large space within your organisation.

Please choose from one of the following packages for your group. If you have an idea for a workshop that is not here then please get in touch.

Fun in a day

What? One-off fun drama session
Who? Day services and self-advocacy
How? One-off workshops

In the picture

What? Using the media workshops
Who? Self-advocacy groups and colleges
How? 5 workshops

Not a care in the world

What? Fun drama session
Who? Carer groups
How? One-off or whole day session

Forum theatre

What? Interactive role play skills for an audience
Who? Any groups
How? Minimum of 2 workshops

Speak up!

What? Communication and assertiveness workshops
Who? Self-advocacy groups and colleges
How? 5 workshops

Train the trainer

What? Drama facilitation training sessions
Who? Support staff and carer groups
How? 1-2 whole days

My life on film

What? Film direction and editing
Who? Any groups
How? Depends on project

Connections

What? Team building workshops
Who? Self-advocacy groups and colleges
How? 4 workshops

Experience Drama

What? Developing social skills through drama
Who? Day services
How? 10 workshops

Present to me

What? Presentation skills
Who? Self advocacy, colleges, carers groups and training sessions
How? 1-2 workshops

Marvel at me!

What? Creating a comic book
Who? Self-advocacy groups
How? 5 workshops

Have your say!

What? Issue based workshop(s)
Who? Conferences, events and training sessions
How? One-off or longer projects

The Interview

What? Job interview techniques
Who? Supported employment, self advocacy, colleges
How? 1-2 workshops

Projects

If you have other ideas for longer projects such as week long holiday projects, devising projects or for a specific event then please contact us.

Contact us

For more detailed information and workshop terms and conditions then please go to...

www.advocreate.com

or contact us via

e: info@advocreate.com

t: 020 8985 7252